Dellwood Homeowners Association

Dellwood Picnic

Dellwood Homeowners Association held their annual picnic in September. Marty and Allison Harris did a fabulous job of organizing the event. The guessing jar was a big hit. Even more popular were the tasty burgers and hot dogs that Marty and his son, Jeff, grilled. Everyone brought delicious side dishes to share. Many wonderful items were donated for the drawing and lots of lucky people got to take home a treasure. Thank you to everyone who attended and special thanks to Marty and his family for all the time and effort they invested in making the picnic a success. If you have any suggestions for next year's picnic please contact a board member.

Neighborhood News

Fred Ludden passed away on September 28, 2013. Fred and his wife Judy have lived in Dellwood for 20 years. Fred was very active in the community. Over the years Fred's tireless efforts and leadership on the DHA board helped shape Dellwood into the wonderful neighborhood it is today.

Miscellaneous

Starting to worry about winter weather? You and your car can't handle snowy roads? Got an important doctor's appointment but the road hasn't been cleared? What to do? Our very thoughtful neighbor, Trully Safrit has an idea. Trully has a car that is good in snow and she has volunteered to do the driving for you. If you need help or would like to volunteer to help a neighbor, please contact Trully Safrit at 692-8393 or etsafrit@att.net.

Currently there are two houses for sale in Dellwood.

712 Greenwood Drive
$163,900

821 Greenwood Drive
$205,000

These pictures certainly capture the wilder side of Dellwood. Steve Heil took a couple of great photos of a young bear relaxing on his steps and snacking on bird food. Jane Battis shared this picture of a raccoon looking for bird food. Walter Petersen reported that a bear visited his yard and bent a 1 inch steel pipe to get to some bird food. Gosh, I'm thinking we have some well fed bears and raccoons but perhaps the birds are a bit hungry. I greatly appreciate everyone who shared photos and animal reports. Please remember these are wild animals so be careful.

Miscellaneous Continued

Please remember to pick up after your pet. Not only is this stated in the Dellwood covenants, the failure to do so is considered a public nuisance by Henderson County (16.8). You may read the entire Henderson County Animal Ordinance at hendersoncountync.org/animals/animalcontrol.html . (Updated 11/20/2013) Please be a responsible pet owner and a good neighbor.

Something New

There are 59 homes in Dellwood and currently 58 of them are occupied. This adds up to a lot of people. Everyone is busy and it can be hard to get to know all of our neighbors. I have decided to try something new, sort of a featured resident section, for the newsletter. Please let me know what you think of it, if you would like to suggest someone for the winter newsletter and I could use help with a catchy name for this section. Thank you.

Meet Stephanie Cartrette. She and her family moved to 108 Creekstone Lane last fall and they absolutely love it here. Stephanie and Jim were married in the spring of 2012 and together they have 7 children and 2 grandchildren. Now here is the sweet side of the story. Stephanie has been decorating cakes for 30 years. She has been a Wilton instructor and for the past 16 years she was a bakery manager for a local grocery store. Now she is opening a bakery called Joyful Times Bakery. She bakes a variety of desserts including cakes, cupcakes, cookies and candy. So if you need a sweet for any occasion, call Stephanie at 778-6222 or check out the bakery on Facebook. I wish you much success with your exciting new business.

Events

The Community Orchestra of Hendersonville, led by Robert Hudson (721 Greenwood Drive) will present a free concert on Sunday, November 24 at 3:00 pm at the Trinity Presbyterian Church on Blythe Street. It will feature Mozart's Piano Concerto No. 21. Guest pianist is Hendersonville native, Andrew Rogelberg. Also on the program are three short, original works composed by Robert: a children's piece written for his grandchildren called "Christopher and the Dragon," a trumpet solo and a setting of an aboriginal prayer, featuring a digeridoo and small chorus.

The ninth annual "Messiah Sing" will be held Sunday, December 1 at 3:00 at Trinity Presbyterian Church. This is an informal performance without rehearsal. Singers bring your own scores and paper clips and arrive at 2:00. The performance will be led by Robert Hudson. It should last about an hour and is also free.

From the President by Beth Echols

Let me start with changes to the board. I regret to announce that the DHA board has lost two very dedicated members. Max Capps and Karyl Kyser resigned on November 2, 2013. Max and Karyl served on the board for many years and contributed so much to our neighborhood. I want to thank them for all they have done and wish them well in Edneyville. We are fortunate that Peg Price has volunteered to replace Karyl as Treasurer. I am confident Peg will be a great asset to the board and I look forward to working with her.

Now on a personal note, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all of you that sent such thoughtful cards and emails after my dad died. Your kindness meant so much. Thank you.

Since this is the last newsletter of the year, let me end by saying, stay warm and enjoy the holiday season.
