

Dellwood Digest

June 2013

Dellwood Homeowners Association

Timber!

On June 10th a large tree fell across Greenwood Drive. Jose Marquez saw the tree falling and called 911. Valley Hill Fire Dept. responded quickly and within an hour additional crews and heavy equipment arrived. Soon the road was cleared and open to traffic. I'm happy to report that the tree didn't encounter any people, houses, pets or cars on its way down. Thank you to Jose and the gentlemen who safely removed the tree.

Inside this issue:

DDIGS	2
Hendersonville	3
Websites	3
News	4
Miscellaneous	4
Garage Sale	5
Calendar	6

Note from the Editor

First let me say that it is a bit intimidating to follow Dick Laux as editor. I do not possess his way with words nor his vast knowledge of our neighborhood. Please be patient as I struggle along.

The summer edition of the Digest will be published in August. If you have news or pictures you would like to share with our neighbors please let me know.

Thank you,

Beth Echols beth@jechols.us 828 692-6261

Dellwood D.I.G.s! All women of Dellwood are welcome.

Dellwood D.I.G.s by Annette Hudson

DDIGS is an acronym created by Donna Lyerly. It stands for Dellwood Dames Interest Groups. We began in early 2013 when a small group of Dellwood women got together and brainstormed ways the ladies of the neighborhood could get to know each other or get to know each other better. We came up with a range of interest groups.

Trully Safrit heads up a knitting group that seems to have taken off nicely. They meet in her home periodically and.... well...knit. From beginner to expert, everyone is invited.

There is also a hiking group which has morphed into a general evening walking group. We most often "hike" in the neighborhood and surrounding neighborhoods at 6:00 on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Sometimes we venture out to Patton or Jackson Park or even Fletcher Community Park. With a little advance planning who knows to where we head next? We usually meet in front of Beth and Jim Echols house at 828 Greenwood. We take off with whoever shows up at 6:00. No reservations are required and all levels of walkers are welcome.

Then there is the movie group. Sometimes husbands are just not interested in certain films. Therefore, ladies of Dellwood can contact each other for a movie outing. So far some have joined up to see "Lincoln" and "Star Trek".

Technically, there is a garden group although we have never formally met. Annette Hudson, Jane Battis and Judy Ludden have been known to exchange plants or just generally talk gardening. We welcome any other "Dellwood Dame" to join in conversation and plant swapping.

Finally, for those who enjoy quilting, there is a like-minded gathering of quilters who would love having more folks join them.

There has been talk of other interest groups but these are the ones we have so far. As a disclaimer, to be politically correct, I must say that men are welcome to join us. Be warned, however, that we sometimes sip tea from flowery little teacups and always there is lots and lots of chatter.

If you are interested in participating in any of our groups, would like more information or have an idea for an additional group, call Annette Hudson at 693-3081.

Annette Hudson and Peg Price enjoying an evening walk in Dellwood.

This is also the perfect opportunity to admire all the beautiful yards in our neighborhood.

The following article appeared in the Times-News on June 3rd.

USA Today article lists Hendersonville as 'great place to retire'

A story published by USA Today today lists Hendersonville as one of “5 great (unknown) places to retire.”

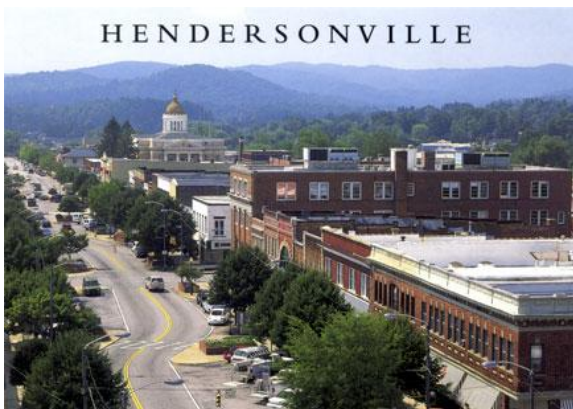

The story says retirees want “low cost-of-living, low crime and a vibrant downtown,” as well as access to good medical care and health, wellness and fitness activities.

Teri King, CEO of Coldwell Banker King in Asheville, says in the article that Hendersonville “has many of the qualities sought by Baby Boomers.”

Citing Hendersonville's “remarkably friendly yet sophisticated social experience,” King says the climate and attractions such as Hendersonville Symphony Orchestra, Flat Rock Playhouse, Mission Health, area forests and waterfalls and the city's proximity to cities such as Atlanta are key draws for retirees.

Also making the list were St. Augustine, Fla.; King of Prussia, Pa.; College Station, Texas; and Branson, Mo.

Visit www.usatoday.com/money/personal-finance/ to read the full story.

If you are wondering about crime in our area, there is a new site you should check out. Go to the Henderson county sheriff's website at www.crimemapping.com/map/nc/henders oncounty . Last check, there was nothing indicated in our neighborhood. Yes!!

Hey, while you are on the web, visit the Dellwood Homeowners Association website at www.dellwoodhoa.org . Brian has added pictures from the DHA Annual Meeting that was held in April of this year.

Neighborhood News

I am happy to announce that we have a new neighbor. Jerry and Laura Rice's son, Everett Marshall, was born on April 18th. Eliza Jane is now a very proud big sister. Congratulations to the Rice Family. Welcome to the neighborhood Everett!

Miscellaneous

Jane Battis has a lovely ground cover that is doing very well this year. She has kindly offered to share some plants with her neighbors in Dellwood. Please send Jane an email if you are interested.

joy2you@morrisbb.net

Currently one house is for sale in Dellwood. 712 Greenwood Drive, listed at $164,900.

Get Ready for the Dellwood Homeowners Association Garage Sale

Saturday, July 6th, 2013

8 am to 3 pm

(rain date July 13th)

The Association will place advertisements in the Times News if at least 10 households participate.

Balloons provided to put on your mailbox

If you would like to participate, please call Brian Kowald at 697- 4231, email to bkowald@gmail.com

DHA Garage Sale Participant

Name: _____
Phone: _____
Address: _____

DHA Calendar 2013-2014

July 20	DHA board meeting
August 24	DHA board meeting
September 21	Dellwood Annual Picnic
November 2	DHA board meeting
January 18	DHA board meeting
March 1	DHA board meeting
April 17	DHA Annual Meeting

Please note that the above schedule could change. If you plan to attend a board meeting, confirm the date with a board member.

Max Capps	kjkemc@att.net
Beth Echols	beth@jehols.us
Marty Harris	jamm0324@aol.com
Annette Hudson	rdandabudson@bellsouth.net
Karyl Kyser	kjkemc@att.net
George Stiekes	judystiekes@yahoo.com

